

Terms	Consequences
War guilt: Germany accepted all the blame for starting WWI.	Germany couldn't keep up payments, ruining its economy.
Military strength: the army was cut to 100,000 men.	Germany could no longer rely on trade with its Empire.
Overseas empire: all of Germany's colonies were taken away.	Germans hated being blamed and felt it was only because they had lost.
League of Nations: Germany was not allowed to join.	Many Germans found themselves living in another country.
Land: parts of Germany were given away to border countries such as France	Soldiers resented this. They lost pride in the military.
Reparations: Germany had to pay £6600 million to the Allies.	Germany felt left out of the international politics of peace.

Terms	Consequences
War guilt: Germany accepted all the blame for starting WWI.	Germany couldn't keep up payments, ruining its economy.
Military strength: the army was cut to 100,000 men.	Germany could no longer rely on trade with its Empire.
Overseas empire: all of Germany's colonies were taken away.	Germans hated being blamed and felt it was only because they had lost.
League of Nations: Germany was not allowed to join.	Many Germans found themselves living in another country.
Land: parts of Germany were given away to border countries such as France	Soldiers resented this. They lost pride in the military.
Reparations: Germany had to pay £6600 million to the Allies.	Germany felt left out of the international politics of peace.