Teaching notes

Aim: To help students consolidate their understanding of the entire topic by reviewing key individuals from the Korean and Vietnam Wars.

To make the cards: There are 16 cards in each colour set. Cut round the picture and backing then fold over and stick the two halves together to make a card with a picture on one side and a coloured backing on the other. To play the game, each pair will need a set of pink, blue and purple cards.

To play the game: The game should be played in pairs. Each player needs to lay either the pink or blue cards face up in a 4X4 grid in front of them. Then the purple deck needs to be shuffled. Each player picks a card from the purple deck and keeps it a secret – this is the character that the other player is searching for. The players then take it turns to ask questions in order to find out the mystery person. E.g. Player 1: ‘Was this person the president of the USA?’ Player 2: ‘No’. Player 1 turns over their cards with a US president on them as they have been ruled out. This continues until the mystery person has been found. The player that does this the quickest is the winner.
