

‘American isolationism was the main problem faced by the Paris Peace conference.’ How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer.

[16 marks]

The structure below uses Point, Evidence, Analysis and Significance.

P: One very significant problem left over after the Paris Peace Conferences was American isolation.

E: Isolationism was a policy that... ..

E2: America followed the policy of isolationism because... ..

A: This was a problem for Europe because... ..

A2: As a result... ..

S: This was therefore a significant problem left over the by Paris Peace Conference because... ..

P: A second, less significant problem left over by the Paris Peace Conferences was German resentment of the Treaty of Versailles.

E: Germany resented the Treaty because

E2: Furthermore

A: This was a problem for Europe because

A2: As a result... ..

S: This was therefore a significant problem left over the by Paris Peace Conference because... ..

Problems of the Paris Peace Conference: Writing frame

P: One final significant problem left over after the Paris Peace Conference was the problems in Central Europe.

E: Central Europe was facing problems because

E2: Furthermore

A: This was a problem for Europe because

A2: As a result... ..

S: This was therefore a significant problem left over the by Paris Peace Conference because... ..

P: Overall, I would argue that the most significant problem left over by the Paris Peace conferences was

A: This was the most significant problem because

A2: Furthermore, this helped cause / affected the other problems because
.....

S: Therefore, the most significant problem left over by the Paris Peace Conference was